WOW! What a month of Camping. First was on the Umpqua at BEDROCK Camp Ground. Thank you Diana and Jim. Once again we did get GOLD! Good Gold! Jerry and I worked a crack that produced real good. Weather couldn't have been any better. 13 members enjoyed the hospitality. Then we had a change of and went to a NEW Location for the Club. We traveled a few miles South of Powers Oregon to a location Called "CHINA FLAT" We had a real mixed bag of weather. Rain (drizzle) and Sun (HOT) one day we reached 101°F. I want to thank BJ & Randy for hosting the outing. Chicken Fried Steak, Mashed Potato's & White Sausage Gravy, plus lots of extras. Gold was found by those who looked for it! We had 13 members at Chine Flat also. Bit strange don't you think?

We are going to elect Officers before the end of the year. Yvonne and I sure would enjoy it if someone else could take over. We have found it very interesting to say the least. But I have other obligations that I feel are needing my full attention. I can't do it and run the Club also. Veterans of Foreign Wars requires a lot of time and I find myself having to travel when I would rather be mining. But our Veterans and my fellow Brothers and Sisters deserve my fullest efforts. Thank You for your support.
